3. Schedule next meeting-Thursday 11/5/20 7:00am

4. Employee Report-Cheryl has been working on a platform for Sparkle.

5. Quick items

a. Downtown Banners update-We have received a permit from the County for Jan-Dec.

b. Additional Board Member – update-Reviewed some potential names

6. Events discussion

a. Safe Trick-or-Treat – any options- For Halloween we are going to do a pumpkin carving contest online. Three categories: Unique, Funny and Scary. $50.00 gift certificate to the Chamber member of your choice. 29th will be the deadline with winners chosen on the 30th. They need to tell us which category they are submitting for and they must be a Plumas County resident.

b. Sparkle – go virtual- Cheryl will continue to work on the virtual platform. She has had positive responses from people who want to participate including businesses doing short ads. It was decided by the Board to approve contacting Josie Litchfield to help with this and a not to exceed of $500. Susan made the motion and Robin seconded, unanimous.

7. East Quincy Project / Flower Baskets discussion-Cheryl will work on an East Quincy flower basket project for next year. She will make contact with businesses in East Quincy to see who would put the baskets up if we buy them. Getting a commitment to water them is part of what Cheryl will be asking the businesses. The Board agreed that this would be a good use of the Captain Carl money for East Quincy.

We discussed the highway project and the drawings that John Kolb did for us. We will continue this until the next meeting

8. What else can Cheryl work on right now?

9. Adjourn

Submitted for review 10/15/20 by Kris Miravalle, Secretary with the help of Susan Scarlett
