1. Additions or deletions to the agenda-N/A

2. Approve minutes from November 18, 2020-with the correction “in favor and it was approved.” added to the last line, the minutes were approved. Robin/Susan.

3. Schedule next meeting- Jan.7, 2021 Zoom at 7:00 am

4. Employee Report-Cheryl reviewed. Much of her time was spent on Sparkle.

5. Quick items

a. Plumas Bank signature card-It was approved to have the following signers on our Plumas Bank account 111041766: Remove Matthew Kitchens, Keep Susan Scarlett and Kris Miravalle, and add Cheryl Kolb. Susan/Robin.

6. Events discussion

a. Virtual Sparkle review-Group endorsed a big thank you to Cheryl, from Freddy, for a great job with the virtual Sparkle. Some notes: she used OpenShot video editor, Safe Music List, Dropbox, on a YouTube playlist. We received over 10,000 views and 26 new subscribers. Cheryl will check back with the merchants that participated to get their input.

b. Groundhog Fever Festival-Date will be 2/6, if we have it in person. If we go virtual route, some ideas were: Use Chuck as a photoshopped member of picture, use a Chuck mask in picture, have a Chuck GIF. Final decision on event will be made at January meeting. Cheryl will compile a video clip of previous Chucks in the meantime.

7. Strategic plan for the Chamber-After some discussion it was agreed that an internal strategic plan would be effective to help guide us. It could have one year, two year/five-year goals. Everyone will think about items that they think should be included and we will work on it in Jan/Feb 2021.

8. East Quincy Flower Baskets update-We ordered 70 baskets and were able to have them sent to the Nursery for storage until spring. Talked about using Million Bells, which require less maintenance. Shelly Hunter was happy with the effort we are making. The baskets will be distributed throughout Quincy and East Quincy. Kevin mentioned that the winter banners would be put up shortly.

9. East Quincy landscaping project discussion (carryover from October 15th)-Table until Strategic Plan discussion.

10. Adjourn 7:57am

Minutes submitted for review by Kris Miravalle, Secretary on 12/10/20.
